The Weekly Parish Light 2023

St. James Episcopal Church · 2 S Augustine St. · Wilmington DE 19804 · 302-994-2029

From the Rector – The Rev. Sarah Nelson December 9, 2023

Everything has a beginning, a middle, and an end. Last Sunday was the beginning of the season of Advent, the season on beginnings, and the first Sunday of Advent, the time of hope.

This second Sunday of the season of Advent is the Sunday of Love. One of my favorite Advent hymns is the plaintive, "Of the Father's love begotten." Truly, that is what the season of Advent is all about: the Christ child begotten of God's love for God's creation and for everything contained in creation.

Many of you will remember my pup Zohar. Zohar was named for the ancient Hebrew scripture, the holiest of scripture. Zohar is commentary on Kabbalah which is commentary on Torah. The beginning of Zohar is the story of the creator. The creator has so much love that that love is poured into a vessel. The vessel is unable to hold all of the love that is poured into it. A larger container is created but it too cannot contain the love. Even larger containers are found but none can control the love. Finally the container, filled to the brim but with so much more love to be poured out, finally shatters into millions of pieces. There is no container large enough to contain the love.

So begins the 33 books of Zohar. Everything that is and was and will ever be is begotten of the Creator's love. Zohar, translated as that which we see, is only a fraction of what there is. It is beyond even our imagination to even begin to comprehend the magnitude of God's love. There is nothing that can even begin to contain that love.

The second Sunday of Advent draws our attention to that love. Our cradle of hope is lined with the warmth of love. As we create this most holy of spaces, this space, not only within the manger but also the space within our being, we make space for the hope promised in the Christ. We make space for the love so great that it warms our days and our nights, promising that that love which cannot be contained will come within us and will be a Keaton to the world of God's abiding love and presence.

"Of the Father's love begotten, ere the worlds began to be, He is Alpha and Omega, He the Source, the Ending He, of the things that are, that have been, and that future years shall see, evermore and evermore!"

Faithfully,

Sarah

MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES from Dr. Michael Larkin, Director of Music Ministry

My St. James Friends,

The gospel themes for the second and third Sundays of Advent always focus on the life and preaching of John the Baptist. John was Jesus' cousin who constantly exclaimed the words of Elijah, "Prepare the way of the Lord." Accordingly, the choir anthem for Sunday is my choral setting of those very same words.

I share a gentle reminder about our combined Lessons and Carols service this Sunday at 3:00 p.m. at the "other" St. James, just off the Kirkwood Highway near the Midway Shopping Center. I hope to see many of you there for this beautiful and meaningful Advent worship experience.

The following Sunday, December 17, is a busy Sunday. Our 10:00 a.m. service will include our Youth Christmas Pageant and then in the evening is our Quiet Christmas service at 7:00 p.m. with light refreshments available at 6:30 p.m. This service is a wonderful way to "catch your breath" during what can be a hectic, very busy time of the year.

Blessings,

Dr. Michael Larkin

HOPE, LOVE, JOY, PEACE

Sunday School is available for all children during the 10:00 am worship service.

Sunday School Lessons are planned to match the Lectionary reading for the week. A discussion about the lesson and a craft or activity will follow. The children join their families in church for the Eucharist, or if Miss Tina is singing in the choir, the children will come in during the peace. All children are welcome to attend our class, even if they are not SUNDAY SCHOOL here every week or are just visiting. Please ask a Greeter to direct you to the classroom.

A Prayer for Families: Heavenly Father, in whom we live and move and have our being, we humbly pray to you to guide and govern us by the Holy Spirit, that in all the cares and occupations of our daily life, we may never forget you, but remember that we are ever walking in your sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESE OF DELAWARE – Pray for All Saints' Church, Rehoboth Beach, and St. George's Chapel, Harbeson, The Rev. Shelley McDade, Rector, The Rev. Judith Rhodes, Assistant Priest, The Rev. Deacon Christine Miller-Marcin, Director of Growth and Family Engagement.

In last week's Parish Light edition, several events were highlighted that YOU have helped us make successful by giving us your help and support! Here are a few more which were inadvertently omitted:

- The Worship and Hospitality Committees presented "Coco" to celebrate All Saint's Day. Dawn Martinez did a fabulous job creating an Ofrenda for all church members to share their loved ones' pictures. What a beautiful way to remember those we love!
- The Outreach Committee along with our parishioners have done a fine job of cutting and tying blankets for the residents of Coral Springs. The blankets have recently been delivered in the hope of sharing our Christmas spirit with those in the nursing home.
- On Pearl Harbor Day last Thursday, December 7th, Del Vets hosted its annual celebration and lunch at St. James for local veterans. A very moving commemorative ceremony, held outside at the flag pole (and yes, with snow coming down!), was presented by cadets from Delaware Military Academy. Thanks to all who baked cookies for the Cookie Walk! It was a success! The cookies were sold during the lunch and proceeds were given to St. James!
- We are collecting Food for Families at Richey School and we would like to thank the Delaware Military Academy for donating five bags full of food for our project!

AND NOW, WE HAVE ANOTHER REQUEST! Please start collecting small glass jars. We need them to use for votives for the Epiphany Three Kings Sunday Celebration in January. (One suggestion is the size of glass jar that Oui Yogurt comes in.)

You may start bringing in your clean glass jars (no labels, please) this Sunday, Dec. 10th, running through Sunday, Dec. 24th. Thank you.

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.

Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby Archbishop of York, Stephen Cottrell

Prayer in the Midst of Violence

Lord, in our shock and confusion, we come before you in our grief and despair in the midst of hate, in our sense of helplessness in the face of violence, We lean on you.

For the families of those who have been killed, we pray.

For the shooters – help us to pray, Lord.

For the communities that have lost members, their anger, grief, fear, We pray.

For the churches striving to be your light in darkness beyond comprehension,

We pray.

Lord of all, gather us up – your creatures, your world – and bring an end to the violence.

Come, Lord Jesus.

Amen.

Prayer for Refugees

O Lord God, you led your people through the wilderness and brought them to the promised land. Guide us now so that, following your Son, we may walk alongside vulnerable refugee families as they build a new life in the county of your love and mercy. Amen.

For those serving our country: National Guard: Terron Barnes, Brad Pastore, Christina Pastore; U.S. Army: Maj. Scott M. Harra. Give grace, O Lord, to our brothers and sisters in Christ who suffer physically and emotionally, that they may be healed. Grant them trust and love that their prayers may be answered and that they may be relieved from their suffering. Amen.
