
The Weekly Parish Light 2024

St. James Episcopal Church · 2 S Augustine St. · Wilmington DE 19804 · 302-994-2029

From the Rector – The Rev. Sarah Nelson
January 27, 2024

I find it pretty amazing to what we human beings can adapt. Today I walked outside and unzipped my winter jacket. It was 35° and felt balmy. Last week's teens temperatures made 35 feel doable.

That ability to adapt, to roll with the punches ... that resilience is a life-saving strategy. I remember some quotation on the programs for my weekly dance class recitals. The quotation – “As the twig is bent, so grows the tree” – is a seventeenth century statement emphasizing the importance of early experiences which have enormous power in shaping life. I watch and marvel at the care and affection which the children in our midst receive. Their early experiences frame the way they see the world. The hierarchy of needs (the first being trust versus mistrust) influences the way that we encounter the world. So if a child learns to trust the world, that is a foundation for life. We all have scars from life and those also frame how we experience life. The inclination of the twig is important in how the tree grows. Resilience ... when life knocks you down, how you get back up is a survival skill. Two things come to mind. Last week with frigid temperatures, snow and ice, especially after two years of a hiatus from this harsh winter weather, one response is “See you in May.” Another response is to “go with the punches.” “I can't do today what I had planned, but the ice will melt and then I can carry on with my plans.” I admire both responses. So resilience ... “We will reschedule meetings, postpone some things, and it will be okay.” The twig, after all, if it doesn't bend, will snap and break. So the Worship Committee will meet this coming Sunday after church, and our annual discussion of our pledging to the ministry of Saint James will be extended a week. My friends, it will be okay.

The other topic that comes to my mind with the twig bending and tree following suit is our children. Last week in Church school, the children discussed and learned about stewardship. They spoke about why the church was important in their lives and how they could use their time, talent and treasure to further the bringing in of God's kingdom. One product of that discussion was that each child signed a paper with their pledge to the church. Tina showed the pledge card to me during worship and it brought a tear to my eye. Even at their tender ages, the twig is being bent to their faith and the importance of the church in their lives. The kids' promise of their time, their talent and their treasure to Saint James is the bending of the twig so that, as scripture tells us, they may grow into “oaks of righteousness.”

Life sure does throw us some curve balls! It is our God who walks with us and never abandons us. It is our God who bends us and inclines our hearts to the Divine. For that, I say, “Thanks be to God!”

Faithfully,

Sarah

Prayer for Coral Springs

Jesus, I ask for comfort and hope for those who are in nursing homes. May they feel your presence and know you see them as precious and having your love in their hearts. May they be treated with dignity. I also pray for the caregivers. They have such a hard job and many times don't receive acknowledgement for what they do. May they know the importance and beauty of their job and realize they are bringing you to the people they are serving. Please give them strength when they become tired and when the job becomes very stressful. May the people who make decisions regarding the money that nursing homes receive know they too will be older one day and to be sensitive to the needs and challenges of these wonderful people. Amen.

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear,
that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.

Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby Archbishop of York, Stephen Cottrell

Prayer in the Midst of Violence

Lord, in our shock and confusion, we come before you in our grief and despair in the midst of hate,
in our sense of helplessness in the face of violence,
We lean on you.

For the families of those who have been killed, we pray.
For the shooters – help us to pray, Lord.
For the communities that have lost members, their anger, grief, fear,
We pray.

For the churches striving to be your light in darkness
beyond comprehension,
We pray.

Lord of all, gather us up – your creatures, your world –
and bring an end to the violence.
Come, Lord Jesus.
Amen.

Prayer for Refugees

O Lord God, you led your people through the wilderness and brought them to the promised land.
Guide us now so that, following your Son, we may walk alongside vulnerable refugee families as they build a new life in the county of your love and mercy. Amen.
