From the Rector – The Rev. Sarah Nelson

Lent is upon us. Those forty days and forty nights throughout history have been a time to prepare us for Easter. This year, the scriptures that we will hear on Sunday mornings in our lessons taken from the Old Testament have to do with God's covenant with us. In its most simple form, that covenant is, "I will be your God and you will be my people." What a covenant or promise that is! God's promise to God's people is that in all moments and in all occasions of our lives, God will be God – abiding, loving, comforting, healing each of us.

During these weeks of Lent, the church calls us to a season where we focus our being into living in that promise. You may say, "I am having a rough time these days. I don't have time for anything but just getting through." That covenant reminds us that indeed God is right there wanting better things for us than we can ask or imagine. If we were able to live in the reality of that promise, you might say, "I am so busy, I just cannot take on another thing." Lent is the season to be reminded of God's promise to be God, lifting that burden from us.

As you prayerfully consider your Lenten practice, you might ask yourself what stands in the way of your seeing more fully God's promise to be your God. You might ask what can you change so that you might realize that promise more completely? The road to China begins with a single step. During Lent, can you take a step closer to the God who loves and cares for you even beyond what we humans can take in?

Faithfully,

Sarah

MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES from Dr. Michael Larkin, Director of Music Ministry

My St. James Friends,

Transfiguration Sunday as well as our Bishop's visit have passed and now we are in the Liturgical season of Lent. From both a musical and spiritual point of view, Lent has always been one of my favorite and most meaningful liturgical seasons. Spiritually preparing for the Passion, or the Crucifixion, and then the glorious Resurrection of Jesus is most meaningful and important. I always say that the mountaintop is even more glorious when one has spent some time down in the valley.

On the first Sunday in Lent, many churches say or sing the Great Litany. The Great Litany is one of the oldest and certainly one of the most comprehesive prayers of the church. It was first published in 1544 but various versions were certainly said or sung well before that. It is lengthy but listen carefully to the many petitions sung by the cantors so that each of the congregational responses will have personal and spiritual meaning.

The choir's anthem for this Sunday is a setting of the text, "Lord, Who Throughout These Forty Days," by John Leavitt, set to the early-American hymn tune "Consolation." This tune is one of several that are still included in contemporary hymnals that have been taken from a popular early-American hymnal, Kentucky Harmony, 1831.

Blessings,

Dr. Michael Larkin Director of Music Ministry

Prayer for Coral Springs

Jesus, I ask for comfort and hope for those who are in nursing homes. May they feel your presence and know you see them as precious and having your love in their hearts. May they be treated with dignity. I also pray for the caregivers. They have such a hard job and many times don't receive acknowledgement for what they do. May they know the importance and beauty of their job and realize they are bringing you to the people they are serving. Please give them strength when they become tired and when the job becomes very stressful. May the people who make decisions regarding the money that nursing homes receive know they too will be older one day and to be sensitive to the needs and challenges of these wonderful people. Amen.

LENTEN SERIES AT SAINT JAMES

What Does It Mean To Be Chosen?

Join us beginning Tthis Sunday, February 18 through Lenten Sundays after services to explore the answer to this question as we view the groundbreaking series, The Chosen. Filmmaker and author, Dallas Jenkins, beautifully presents the life of Jesus in such a way that promises to move you forever while enhancing your knowledge of scripture and what it truly means to be chosen. Notebooks, pens, and Bibles are encouraged for those who would like to jot down items they want to delve into further at their own pace. Several episodes will be shown each week and light snacks will be provided; however, all are welcome to bring their own snacks/sandwiches if preferred.

A BRASH FISHERMAN. A DEMON-POSSESSED WOMAN. A PIOUS RELIGIOUS LEADER. A THIEVING TAX COLLECTOR. Christ's love saw beyond their brokenness and transformed their lives. To Simon Peter, Mary Magdalene, Nicodemus, and Matthew. Before they were heroes of the faith who inspired The Chosen series, they were desperate sinners like us.

When the Son of God walked the earth in our shoes, He connected with humanity through story. Jesus used our own tales to help us understand God's truths. He communicated the immutable principles of the heavens with parables of familiar, earthly circumstances and relatable characters to which any of His listeners could universally identify. They were anecdotes, chronicles, and narratives that became like soul food to everyone He met.

That's how God the Father has been giving His revelation to humankind since the dawn of the cosmos. Through story, because God is and has always been the First Author: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God" (John 1:1, emphasis added).

God knows that when we are most hungry spiritually, the themes of heaven--grace, forgiveness, sacrifice, redemption, reconciliation, and resurrection--will resonate in our hearts and draw us closer to Him. Those themes are like violin strings running through our souls and, when plucked in just the right way, always reverberate back the plumb line of God's truth.

That is what my friend, Dallas Jenkins, is creating with his powerful media series, The Chosen, which takes us on a journey with Jesus through the eyes of the real people whose lives He absolutely transformed with His words, love, and deeds. Imagine what it would be like to walk the dusty roads of those characters who encountered the Messiah.

That is what you are going to find in this beautiful and powerful series. Take The Chosen journey with us beginning tomorrow, February 18th. Watch and reflect on these episodes. Digest them as food for your soul. And then write them in your heart, not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God. ---Brian Bird

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF THE CHOSEN

I've been a believer my whole life, I've attended Christian schools my whole life, and I've heard stories of Jesus countless times. I've also seen every Jesus movie and miniseries ever made, and there have been dozens. So why a new TV show about Jesus?

Because of what you're reading now.

I have a passion for people to hear the "old, old story" again... for the very first time. When I see Jesus movies, it's very rare for me to be moved or excited, and the same is true for a lot of Jesus-related devotionals. Quite frankly, I've heard it all before, and it's hard to relate to the perfect and sinless Son of God. However, I can relate to the sinner who surrounded Him. Problem is, most Jesus projects just take you from Bible story to Bible story, glossing over the humanity and backstories of all these characters.

So when I started creating a TV show that explores Jesus through the eyes of the people around Him, I found myself getting moved and exited. I was experiencing Him in the way they did, and the reaction to the Christmas special pilot episode about the birth of Christ from the perspective of the shepherds confirmed we were on to something. We kept hearing, "I've heard this before but never in this way."

As we wrote episodes, we explored the backstories of Simon Peter, Matthew, Mary Magdalene, Nicodemus, and a few of Jesus' miracle recipients. We couldn't help but identify with their recklessness, rough past, religious piety, and desperation for life change ... and ultimately, their redemption.

Again, why a n ew TV show about Jesus?

So that we can go deeper. None of this matters if it doesn't compel you back to Scripture—not only so you can experience Jesus the way His followers did, but also so you can change and grow the way they did.

So please, if you've chosen (no pun intended) to dig into this material with us, make full use of it. Jesus' followers were students (it's why they called Him "Rabbi" and "Teacher"). Be a student. Write stuff down, pray on what you're seeing and writing, and celebrate the face that you're chosen to be an ambassador for the one who created the world.

Let me be clear: we're compelled to show and tell in order to revive your passion for Scripture and the one who inspired it. We hope watching the show enhances your experience of the written word.

I don't know what stage you're at in your journey with Christ — whether you're a Mary Magdalene who encountered Jesus after a horrific past without Him ... or you're a Nicodemus who's been a lifelong member of the God team. But as Jesus proved over and over, we've got tons to learn and innumerable traits that need change. Thanks for taking that journey with us.

– Dallas Jenkins, Director, The Chosen

'TIS A GIFT

During this season of Lent, as we move towards stillness and listening to God, we look around us to see the many gifts and blessings God has bestowed upon us. During these Lenten days as our scriptures tell us, "to those with ears let them hear." As we hear God calling, may our eyes be opened to see the gifts in one another.

As you are sitting in your pew on Sunday, first, take special notice that our "Circle of Blessings" in the front of our Sanctuary has become our Circle of "GIFTS." Then, as you look around, begin recognizing those gifts you see in one another! There will be "ornaments" that you can write a name on one side and on the other side, the gift you know that person has. In ways both great and small, recognize those gifts which abound. For example Penny – You always extend such a warm welcome to those who come through our doors! Betty – Your exuberance of faith in your final amen warms my heart!

On the Sunday following Easter, you will receive all your ornaments that others have recognized your gifts!

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.
