
The Weekly Parish Light

February 24, 2024

St. James Episcopal Church · 2 S Augustine St. · Wilmington DE 19804 · 302-994-2029

From the Rector – The Rev. Sarah Nelson

The gifts of our time, talent, and treasure are gifts to further the ministry of Saint James in bringing us ever closer to the kingdom of God. On our pledge cards, there are two forms: one focuses on our time and talent, the other focuses on our treasure. If you have not had the opportunity to take a card, please do so, and after prayer, please tender your offering. Loving God with all of our hearts, souls and minds and loving our neighbors as ourselves in showing how we as Christian people are called to be. What is the line from Godspell – Don't hide your light under a bushel for then you have lost something very crucial. Your gifts are blessings. Your gifts help us to more fully see and recognize God in our daily lives individually and as a community.

A while back in conversation, I learned of Lisa Bowe's background in finance. A gift to people like me who do not engage in figures beyond the number of my fingers and toes. A gift to all of us as Lisa took over as our Parish Treasurer. Using her gifts, she has enabled Saint James to keep our books in good order and pay our bills. The offering of such gifts is vital to our parish life.

In small parishes, many wear several hats – leading us in worship and singing in the choir are both part of a Sunday morning. Our Hospitality Team, Carol Hall and Marti LaRue, have certainly shared their gifts bringing us closer as a community.

A couple of opportunities to share our gifts, our time, talent, and treasure come to mind. One such opportunity is to participate in the Easter Vigil on the Saturday evening before Easter (March 30th). This wonderful service is one of the oldest liturgies of the church. It is beautiful!

On that Saturday, we will welcome the Easter feast with the Great Vigil. The Vigil begins with the telling of our story as the people of God. I would like to have a variety of people take one of the lessons and present it during the Vigil. Be creative – a dialogue, a play, a song. The lessons will be posted for you to choose.

Another opportunity for the sharing of talent and treasure will be to prepare cards to send to parishioners with pastoral concerns. If there are several interested in this ministry, we could divide the job.

In the same vein, reaching out to share the Eucharist with those unable to join us on Sunday mornings is an important ministry. Our parishioner Grace Chapman has already taken the Eucharist to several people in the hospital or convalescing. If you are interested in this sharing of time and talent, please let me know.

Finally, to all you gentlemen out there – after Easter, I invite you to join with me for an initial exploration of a gathering of the men of our parish. This group can take a variety of directions which will be up to you ... Bible study, a book study, conversation, gathering for a meal – the limits are without bounds. A date will soon follow but a sign up will be posted for you to convey your interest.

Saint James is a special community doing our best to listen for God’s call and to faithfully follow Him. Our time, our talent, and our treasure are all important components of our faithful witness to our God.

Faithfully,

Sarah

MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES
from Dr. Michael Larkin,
Director of Music Ministry

My St. James Friends,

One of my responsibilities as your Director of Music Ministry is to choose music for each worship service that in some way summarizes, amplifies, and illustrates the meanings of the worship themes that are usually determined by that Sunday’s designated lectionary scripture lessons. This is always true for organ/piano, anthem, hymns, and service music. Depending upon the particular scripture lessons, this task can be rather easy but at times is quite a challenge to accomplish. Regardless, it is a task that I very much enjoy undertaking for each of our worship experiences.

Occasionally, when a text is especially appropriate, I like to have that text sung more than once during the service. This is the case for this coming Sunday. Our gradual hymn that frames the reading of the Gospel lesson is #641, “Lord Jesus, Think on Me,” a beautifully appropriate text for this week’s lessons, and Lent, in general. Then you will hear another setting of that same text when the choir sings the Offertory anthem, only this time, the text will be sung to an original melody that I composed to meld with that text. As always, when singing a hymn, just don’t sing the words, consider the meaning of those words and how they relate to the worship themes for that service.

I hope to see you sitting and singing in the pews on Sunday morning!

Blessings,

Dr. Michael Larkin
Director of Music Ministry

Prayer for Coral Springs

Jesus, I ask for comfort and hope for those who are in nursing homes. May they feel your presence and know you see them as precious and having your love in their hearts. May they be treated with dignity. I also pray for the caregivers. They have such a hard job and many times don't receive acknowledgement for what they do. May they know the importance and beauty of their job and realize they are bringing you to the people they are serving. Please give them strength when they become tired and when the job becomes very stressful. May the people who make decisions regarding the money that nursing homes receive know they too will be older one day and to be sensitive to the needs and challenges of these wonderful people. Amen.

'TIS A GIFT

During this season of Lent, as we move towards stillness and listening to God, we look around us to see the many gifts and blessings God has bestowed upon us. During these Lenten days as our scriptures tell us, “to those with ears let them hear.” As we hear God calling, may our eyes be opened to see the gifts in one another.

As you are sitting in your pew on Sunday, first, take special notice that our “Circle of Blessings” in the front of our Sanctuary has become our Circle of “GIFTS.” Then, as you look around, begin recognizing those gifts you see in one another! There will be “ornaments” that you can write a name on one side and on the other side, the gift you know that person has. In ways both great and small, recognize those gifts which abound. For example Penny – You always extend such a warm welcome to those who come through our doors! Betty – Your exuberance of faith in your final amen warms my heart!

On the Sunday following Easter, you will receive all your ornaments that others have recognized your gifts!

LENTEN SERIES AT SAINT JAMES

Join us this Sunday, March 3rd, to view episodes 5 and 6 after services. Light snacks will be provided; however, all are welcome to bring their own snacks/sandwiches if preferred.

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.

*Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby
Archbishop of York, Stephen Cottrell*

Prayer in the Midst of Violence

Lord, in our shock and confusion, we come before you in our grief and despair in the midst of hate,
in our sense of helplessness in the face of violence,
We lean on you.

For the families of those who have been killed, we pray.
For the shooters – help us to pray, Lord.
For the communities that have lost members, their anger, grief, fear,
We pray.

For the churches striving to be your light in darkness
beyond comprehension,
We pray.

Lord of all, gather us up – your creatures, your world –
and bring an end to the violence.
Come, Lord Jesus.
Amen.

written for faithward*

Prayer for Refugees

O Lord God, you led your people through the wilderness and brought them to the promised land.
Guide us now so that, following your Son, we may walk alongside vulnerable refugee families as they build a new life in the county of your love and mercy. Amen.
