From the Rector – The Rev. Sarah Nelson

Life seems to go along smoothly until you hit a bump in the road. Then everything seems out of whack. For so many reasons I miss our beloved Marti La Rue. While she is home convalescing, I hope that you are including her in your prayers.

One of the many reasons that I miss Marti's presence is her infectious energy and ability to take chaos and make it seem manageable. As the fall season, the program season of the church begins anew there is much that is happening. The challenge is to make all of that controllable.

In this week, I thought that I would simply give you a calendar for the coming months. Marti would have all of this neat and readable but please bear with me.

September 29. Celebrating the Forrest. Academic session with our young people. Kids are encouraged to bring school work. Lunch will be served. Adults volunteers welcome.

October 6. The Feast of Saint Francis

Bring your beloved pets or photos of them, we will also name those pets that we have loved and lost.

Please bring a lawn chair as we will be meeting outside.

Breakfast will be available following worship.

October 13 recognizing Yom Kippur. Yom Kippur is one of the High Holy Days in our Jewish heritage. It is a day of atonement. Our world seems filled with division and bad feelings. Yom Kippur gives us the opportunity to wipe the slate clean and begin anew. We first make peace with one another and then approach the altar of God.

The term scapegoating has roots in Yom Kippur. Come for a special surprise guest to help us let go of past hurts and move confidently into the future.

October 20. Vestry

October 27 academic meeting with young people

November 3 Feast of All Saints

Please bring photos of your loved ones for the Ofrenda. We will view the film Coco after church.

Wow that's a lot. Our worship is intended to be dynamic, moving, and exciting. Hopefully the weeks ahead will be the opportunity for the Holy Spirit to move us and direct us in our worship and throughout our lives.

Faithfully,

Sarah

Election Prayer

Almighty God, to whom we must account for all our powers and privileges.

Guide the people of the United States in the election of officials and representatives; that, by faithful administration and wise laws, the rights of all may be protected and our nation be enabled to fulfill your purposes.

Grant that your holy and life-giving Spirit may so move every human heart that barriers which divide us may crumble, suspicions disappear, and hatreds cease, that our divisions being healed, we may live in justice and peace.

Help us, in the midst of our struggles for justice and truth, to confront one another without hatred and bitterness, and to work together with mutual forbearance and respect.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer for Ukraine
God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.

Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby Archbishop of York, Stephen Cottrell

Prayer in the Midst of Violence

Lord, in our shock and confusion, we come before you in our grief and despair in the midst of hate,
in our sense of helplessness in the face of violence,
We lean on you.

For the families of those who have been killed, we pray.
For the shooters – help us to pray, Lord.
For the communities that have lost members, their anger, grief, fear,
We pray.

For the churches striving to be your light in darkness
beyond comprehension,
We pray.

Lord of all, gather us up – your creatures, your world –
and bring an end to the violence.
Come, Lord Jesus.
Amen.

Prayer for Refugees

O Lord God, you led your people through the wilderness and brought them to the promised land.
Guide us now so that, following your Son, we may walk alongside vulnerable refugee families as they build a new life in the county of your love and mercy. Amen.⁹
