From the Rector – The Rev. Sarah Nelson

In the earliest day of the church those who desired to be baptized and welcomed into the faith went through an extended period of time where they studied and immersed themselves in the practices and articles of a life following Christ. The Bishop would then welcome them into the faith through the sacrament of Baptism. Primarily Baptism was an adult decision where the person could and would assent to receiving the sacrament. By the grace of God, the church grew to the point that the Bishop could not personally Baptize all those who desired it. It then became the practice for priests in the church to baptize individuals. This often occurred with infants or small children. When these baptized individuals grew to an age where they could consent the bishop would confirm the faith begin in them. So today we know well the practice of baptism and confirmation.

At St. James every few years we have enough young people to form a class to prepare for confirmation during the Bishops annual visitation. This year Bishop Brown will visit on Palm Sunday. This year we have a number of young people interested in confirming their faith.

Beginning on January 19th, the class will begin meeting after worship on Sundays.

Confirmation is the occasion for an individual to profess the faith of the community. There are several ways that the community can be involved in the formation of our young people. After reading through these various avenues please let me know how you might become involved. As our community grows so does the strength of our witness. Please prayerfully consider your offering.

1. Sponsor a confirmand.

Each confirmand will have a sponsor to shepherd them through the process. This is a one on one relationship with a variety of suggestions to develop this relationship. On Palm Sunday the sponsor will present the young person for confirmation.

2. Deliver a 5 minutes presentation on your own faith journey to the confirmation class. Our hope is to begin each class with a brief witness of faith. This journey of faith is as individual as each of us. Listening to how others are living their faith is important.

3. Prepare and serve a simple lunch for the class.

Since the class will meet right after worship and kids are kids, they will be hungry. We hope to provide a simple lunch each week. Simple things like hot dogs, Mac and cheese, yes they like the stuff in a box, sloppy joes, pizza.. Simple! If you would like to volunteer for a week please let Carol Hall know.

I am excited for the class to begin and to nurture and watch grow the faith of our young people. I am excited to work with you in this sacred and holy endeavor.

Faithfully,

Sarah

Sunday School is available for all children during the 10:00 am worship service. Sunday School Lessons are planned to match the Lectionary reading for the week. A discussion about the lesson and a craft or activity will follow. The children join their families in church for the Eucharist, or if Miss Tina is singing in the choir, the children will come in during the peace. All children are welcome to attend our class, even if they are not here every week or are just visiting. Please ask a Greeter to direct you to the classroom.

Prayer for Ukraine
God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear,
that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.

Archbishop of York, Stephen Cottrell*

Prayer in the Midst of Violence

Lord, in our shock and confusion, we come before you in our grief and despair in the midst of hate,
in our sense of helplessness in the face of violence,
We lean on you.

For the families of those who have been killed, we pray.
For the shooters – help us to pray, Lord.
For the communities that have lost members, their anger, grief, fear,
We pray.

For the churches striving to be your light in darkness
beyond comprehension,
We pray.

Lord of all, gather us up – your creatures, your world –
and bring an end to the violence.
Come, Lord Jesus.
Amen.

Prayer for Refugees

O Lord God, you led your people through the wilderness and brought them to the promised land.
Guide us now so that, following your Son, we may walk alongside vulnerable refugee families as they build a new life in the county of your love and mercy. Amen.⁹
